

Sage Ministries Website Accessibility

We want our visitors to the website, including people with disabilities, to access information about us through our website or by other means.

The following links may provide helpful information for optimizing your computer and browser to improve your user experience on these web pages and to have web pages read aloud to you if needed:

Increase Text Size

Magnify your screen

Make your mouse pointer more visible

Accessibility for blind, deaf or hard of hearing

If you have any trouble reading, hearing or using information on our website, please call us or write us. We'll be happy to provide that information through other means.
